

Privacy Notice regarding PV

Purpose of the data collection

Thank you for reporting adverse events or other pharmacovigilance relevant information to a Boehringer Ingelheim product to Boehringer Ingelheim RCV GmbH & Co KG Bulgarian Branch. Your report is very important for public health. We will use and share this data solely for pharmacovigilance purposes. (Pharmacovigilance is the detection, assessment, understanding and prevention of adverse effects or any other medicine-related problem.)

Handling of the report (sharing with Boehringer Ingelheim companies and authorities)

Boehringer Ingelheim RCV GmbH & Co KG Bulgarian Branch will share the report with Boehringer Ingelheim International GmbH who is operating the global pharmacovigilance database.

Boehringer Ingelheim is obliged to report pharmacovigilance relevant information to health authorities worldwide (including to countries that may have another level of data protection compared to the EU).<sup>1</sup> The reports will contain details about the incident but only limited personal data:

- For Patients, the report will only contain, [age / date of birth / year of birth], gender and initials as provided, but never the patient's name.
- For the reporting individuals, the report will include the name, profession (e.g. physician, pharmacist), initials or address, email and phone number as provided. The contact information is required to be able to follow-up with the reporter to gain high quality and complete information on adverse events. If the reporter does not wish to provide his contact details to Boehringer Ingelheim or authorities, "Privacy" is entered in reporter's names field.

Where your data is shared with other Boehringer Ingelheim companies, business partners or service providers outside of the EU, we will provide an adequate protection of personal data.

Retention period

As reports about adverse events are important for public health reasons, reports are kept for minimum of 10 years after withdrawal of the product in the last country where the product is marketed.

Information requests about the handling of your personal data

<sup>1</sup> Legal basis: Art. 6 (1) c), and for transfers outside EU Art. 6 (1) f) and Art. 49 (1) e) EU- General Data Protection Regulation.

Upon your request, we will inform you which data we store about you for which purposes. In justified cases, you may also request the deletion, correction or limitation of the processing of your personal data.

You may also object to the processing of your personal data for the transfer to authorities outside the EU described above unless the interests of Boehringer Ingelheim prevail.

If your personal data is transferred to a country outside the EU which does not provide appropriate protection, you can request a copy of the contract that implements the appropriate protection of personal data. Please send your request to:
